History. The foundation stone of Naval Kindergarten School Port Blair was laid by Vice Admiral KL Kulkarni PVSM, FOC-in-C Eastern Naval Command, on January 13, 1974. The school commenced operations on November 4, 1974, and was inaugurated by Cmde PC Rajkhowa AVSM, Naval Officer-in-Charge of Andaman & Nicobar Islands. As the A&N Command expanded, a second branch of NKG Port Blair was established at Minnie bay and inaugurated by Vice Admiral Harinder Singh AVSM, Fortress Command A&N Islands, on March 12, 1999.

PROGRAMME BY STUDENTS

A Day at School. A day filled with exploration, laughter, and learning. Through art, stories, and early math, they explore creativity and build foundational skills. Outdoor playtime helps develop social and motor skills, while simple life lessons teach independence and sharing. Each day inspires curiosity, growth, and joyful learning.

Fusion Dance (Indian Festival). Celebrating festivals adds excitement to the school day, and fosters an inclusive environment for diverse students. These celebrations also deepen cultural knowledge and appreciation, enriching students' understanding of tradition and diversity.

Atmanirbhar Bharat (Getting ready for Future). Innovation and creativity through art and play promote critical thinking, while environmental awareness builds a sense of responsibility. Together, these qualities empower our students to become confident, innovative, and self-reliant—contributing to the vision of an Atmanirbhar Bharat.
